

Tribal Cultural Landscapes and Forest Management

October 25, 2018 from 8:30am to 4pm,
Mille Lacs Kathio State Park Interpretive Center, Onamia MN

Instructors:

Terry Kemper, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office; Mike Magner, Archeologist, Minnesota DNR; Jim Cummings, Consulting Archeologist, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office; David Mather, Archeologist, Minnesota State Historic Preservation Office; Tim Beyer, MN Department of Natural Resources; Eli Sagor, University of Minnesota Sustainable Forests Education Cooperative.

Workshop agenda:

8:00am	Check-in opens
8:30am	Welcome, agenda review	Eli Sagor, UMN-SFEC
8:35am	Importance of cultural resources on public lands	Tim Beyer, MN DNR - Forestry
8:40am	Cultural resources in natural resource management	Mike Magner, MN DNR and David Mather, MN State Historic Preservation Office
9:15am	Tribal Cultural Landscapes overview	Terry Kemper and Jim Cummings, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office
9:45am	Pipe ceremony	Terry Kemper, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office
10:00am	Break and load buses to head for field sites
10:15am	Old farmstead site review and discussion	Instructors at each site: Terry Kemper and Jim Cummings, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office, Mike Magner, MN DNR and David Mather, MN State Historic Preservation Office
11:15pm	Burial mounds site review and discussion
12:00pm	Lunch in the field
12:40pm	Maple sugar site review and discussion
1:40pm	Wild ricing camp site review and discussion
2:35pm	Old village site review and discussion
3:15pm	Talking circle
3:45pm	Return by bus to Interpretive Center
4:00pm	Adjourn	