

Tribal Cultural Landscapes and Natural Resource Management

May 2, 2019 from 8:30am to 4pm

Mille Lacs Kathio State Park Interpretive Center, Onamia MN

Instructors:

Terry Kemper, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office; Mike Magner, Archeologist, Minnesota DNR; Jim Cummings, Consulting Archeologist, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office; David Mather, Archeologist, Minnesota State Historic Preservation Office; Tim Beyer, MN Department of Natural Resources; Eli Sagor, University of Minnesota Sustainable Forests Education Cooperative.

Workshop agenda:

8:00am	Check-in opens
8:30am	Load buses for first field site
8:45am	Welcome and overview of cultural resource considerations in natural resource management	Eli Sagor, UMN-SFEC
9:00	Ojibwe pipe ceremony and discussion	Terry Kemper, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office
9:30	Old homestead site review and discussion
11:15pm	Burial mounds site review and discussion	Instructors at each site:
12:00pm	Lunch in the field	Terry Kemper and
12:40pm	Maple sugar site review and discussion	Jim Cummings, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Tribal Historic Preservation Office , Mike Magner, MN DNR
1:40pm	Wild ricing camp site review and discussion	and David Mather, MN State Historic Preservation Office
2:20pm	Bus ride to Cooper Site
2:35pm	Cooper Site review and discussion
3:15pm	Talking circle
3:45pm	Return by bus to Interpretive Center
4:00pm	Adjourn	