

DWARF MISTLETOE ON BLACK SPRUCE: PRACTICAL MANAGEMENT OPTIONS

Wednesday May 15, 2019
AmericInn, International Falls, MN

Instructors: Fred Baker, Emeritus Professor, Utah State University; Nick Jensen, MN DNR; Megan O'Neil, MN DNR; Eric Otto, MN DNR; Rachel Peterson, MLEP; Madison Rodman, UMN SFEC; Matt Russell, UMN Forest Resources

AGENDA

8:30am	Arrival and check-in
9:00am	Welcome, introductions, and workshop overview	Madison Rodman
9:15am	Status of forest health in northern MN	Megan O'Neil and Eric Otto
9:45am	Biology and impact of black spruce dwarf mistletoe	Fred Baker
10:15am	Break
10:30am	An ecological perspective on dwarf mistletoe	Nick Jensen
11:00am	Thinking differently about black spruce management	Matt Russell
11:30am	Forest Management Guidelines and forest health	Rachel Peterson
11:45am	Lunch
12:30pm	Travel to field site 1
1:00pm	Field site 1
2:00pm	Travel to field site 2
2:30pm	Field site 2
3:15pm	Travel to AmericInn
3:45pm	Workshop evaluations
4:00pm	Wrap-up and adjourn	